There may be those who think they have a peculiar foot, demanding a custom-made shoe. The illusion is banished to the

Nettleton Shoe,

which is so constructed and in such variation of sizes that any foot can be fitted.

Our Thanksgiving

Deliveries will be as prompt as our groceries are good. We can say nothing better than that most of the things you'll need can just as well be brought now, however. So why not order them to-day. We have everything for the feast from soup to desert. Come in person if you can so you can see what you may forget if you order otherwise.

Take a Tumble

To the fact that cheapness alone is not economy. You can pay too little as well as too much for gasoline engines. You don't do either here. We handle only merchandise of reliable quality and sell it at prices which comparison will show are as low as such machinery can be bought for anywhere and lower than most other places charge for the same grade.

Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Day will be very duly observed by all good Democrats, as they have much to give thanks for. Mr. Roosevelt's new nationalism—the concentration of great power, which under the Constitution is reserved to the people of the several states—is buried with its author under an avalanche of opposing votes. For such a signal favor, supreme thanks should be given.

The standpatties have been defeated and a people's congress, pledged to tariff revision downward, has been given power to carry out the pledge; for this favor, high or low, rich or poor, should give thanks.

Honest and patriotic Republicans have helped us Democrats to gain a great victory to the end that equal rights to all and special privileges to none may be the law of the land, and for this both will join in giving thanks.

A Good Day's Work.

John A. Dix elected Governor of New York, and Teddy laid up for a term of innocuous desuetude.

Judson Harmon re-elected Governor of Ohio, and the Taft political machine laid up for repairs.

Woodrow Wilson elected Governor of New Jersey, and the trust magnates have taken to the woods for fear of dire results.

Simeon E. Baldwin elected Governor of Connecticut, and Republican plunderers praying for mercy and promising restitution.

Eugene N. Foss elected Governor of Massachusetts, and the rotten Lodge ring sent to the dump pile.

A Democratic House of Representatives elected, and only three months more of standpatism, Cannonism and extravagance.

A Democratic cyclone strikes Illinois and several other states.

Looking Ahead.

The election over, the Lexington Herald suggests that we begin to look to the future and to the election that is to be held a year hence when half the Senate, and a full House of Representatives will be chosen.

The Herald points to many questions of vital importance that are to be raised. A revision of the tax laws is a question of the greatest import and no man should be selected to represent a county in the Legislature who is not capable of intelligently making his views known on this subject.

Other important moves are in the direction of a revision of our election laws, a movement toward the establishment of good roads and a better educational system.

In concluding the Herald says: "If in Kentucky we can project discussions along such lines instead of along the lines of personalities; if we can have the views of men in regard to the tax question, in regard to the educational system, in regard to the improvement of the roads, the decisive question as to whether they are elected or not elected to public office, instead of having mere personality and views on matters of minor importance control, political contests will be on a higher plane and Kentucky's future be much brighter."

Best Walking Horse.

The question as to who has the best walking horse in the county was settled Saturday afternoon at the Bourbon fair grounds, and the premium was awarded to Warren Rogers of Cane Ridge. W. B. Woodford got second premium and Ben Woodford third.

The contest took place in the arena and was spirited throughout, there being seven contestants, W. B. Woodford, E. B. Sparks, B. F. Hopkins and Thomas Buckner.

Mr. Rogers, the winner, rode his horse to town, a distance of ten miles. The horse was sired by the noted walking and saddle stallion, Joe Blackburn. The contest has been the absorbing topic among farmers for several weeks and was witnessed by nearly one hundred farmers, many of whom were accompanied by their wives. The judges were H. S. Caywood, C. C. Clark and Gano Hildreth.

Compliments Paris Firm.

The Glasgow (Ky.) Times, edited by ex-Congressman J. M. Richardson, has this editorial in the last issue of his paper:

"The Times notes with interest that Hon. R. B. Franklin, of Frankfort, and Mr. R. C. Talbott, of Paris, Ky., have formed a partnership for the practice of law in all important civil cases in the Circuit Courts of Kentucky, the United States Courts of Kentucky, and the Kentucky Court of Appeals. This firm will soon take rank as one of the greatest legal partnerships in Kentucky—or indeed in any State.

"Of Bob Franklin, the famous commonwealth's attorney in the Frankfort district, it is unnecessary to speak. He is one of the most brilliant intellects in the State, and as an orator stands second to none anywhere. As a prosecutor he is the foremost in a State noted for its orators, and his fame has traveled far and wide. Long after he has mouldered back to original dust his great speeches in the Goebel trials will stir humanity and live as models of choice language, powerful appeal, close and glowing eloquence. He has been mentioned for both governor and United States Senator, but, while always found on the firing line when duty calls, the glittering allurements of politics have not wooed him from the profession in which he is at once an ornament and a leader. He has been counsel on one side or the other in all important cases in Central Kentucky for a decade.

"While not so widely known, in that he has sedulously devoted himself to his profession to the exclusion of all else, Mr. Talbott is concededly recognized as one of the foremost lawyers in his section. For twenty-seven years he has been associated with Mr. W. H. McMillan, and the firm of McMillan & Talbott stands well at the top in Bourbon and adjoining counties and in all the blue grass section. Industrious, painstaking, clear and correct in his pleadings, perfect and convincing in the subject matter of his briefs, a student ever armed with all the law in any case, it is said of him that he has never been taken by surprise by any authority presented by the attorney in opposition. In love with his life-work, a student with a mind as clear as a bell and as strong as the strongest, he is not only a great lawyer, but one whose greatness will grow with each year.

"It is not worth while to speculate upon the future of a partnership such as this. With brilliancy and learning, eloquence and logic combined with strong individualities and high degrees of lovable personal magnetism, its success is already assured. The firm of Franklin & Talbott will be—in fact is—one of the greatest in all Kentucky."

Richmond Hotel Sold.

The Commercial Hotel of Richmond, was sold under the hammer Saturday afternoon to Messrs. W. Bush Allen and Jesse Cogar, both of that city. The consideration was $22,000, which is less than one-half of the cost of construction of the building and equipment.

Free Sample Aids Old Men

The sudden change from years of activity of both body and mind to the quiet of later years causes the human system to undergo many changes, chief of which is in the digestive organs.

It becomes harder and harder to get the bowels to move promptly and regularly and in consequence many elderly men suffer not only from the basic trouble, constipation, but from indigestion, headache, belching, sour stomach, drowsiness after eating and similar annoyances. It is first of all necessary to keep the bowels open and then to tone the digestive muscles so as to get them to again do their work naturally. A violent cathartic or purgative is not only unnecessary but harmful, and something mild will do the work just as well.

After you have got through experimenting with salts and pills and waters of various kinds, and have become convinced that they do only temporary good at best, then try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a mild, gentle, pleasant-tasting laxative tonic that is especially adapted to the requirements of old people, women and children, and yet is effective enough for anybody. Your druggist, who has handled it successfully for a quarter of a century, will sell you a bottle for fifty cents or one dollar, but if you want to make a test of it before spending any money, send your name and address to Dr. Caldwell and he will gladly send you a sample bottle free of charge.

This remedy is rapidly displacing all other forms of medication for the cure of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, and families like Mr. O. F. Wisner's of Spencer, Ill., and Mrs. Carrie Cutler's of 325 N. Notre Dame street, South Bend, Ind., are now never without it in the house. They have tested it and know its grand value to every member of the family.

Dr. Caldwell personally will be pleased to give you any medical advice you may desire for yourself or family pertaining to the stomach, liver or bowels absolutely free of charge. Explain your case in a letter and he will reply to you in detail. For the free sample simply send your name and address on postal card or otherwise. For either request the doctor's address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, R. 500 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature

Dr. Pierce's

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.
